

THE CONGREGATION AT PRAYER

*A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
The week of the twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
October 2-8, 2016*

Catechetical Notes for the week: The first commandment teaches us that the Holy Trinity is our God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We fear Him because He is holy and we are not; yet He has made us His children so we stand in awe of Him desiring to be like Him. We love Him because He saved us. We trust in Him because He alone can rescue from every evil to body and soul. The first commandment shows us that we have committed idolatry against God. All sins are against this first commandment as we place our desires above God. We have feared, loved, and trusted in other gods both outwardly and inwardly. It leads us to repentance and faith in Christ, who alone reveals a loving, gracious, forgiving God. Through Him alone we know God. The second commandment teaches us to call upon the name of the Lord rightly. The name that saves us is Jesus. He reveals the Father. He shows the Spirit. We use Jesus' name rightly when we pray, praise, and give thanks to God through Jesus and when we call upon Him in physical or spiritual trouble. The second commandments shows us that we have misused God's name. We've failed to pray for help, failed to praise Him, failed to thank Him. We have used it recklessly throwing it out when shocked. We have turned to other names in time of help, whether it be ourselves or others, trusting in them rather than in Christ. We have simply neglected the proper worship of God. It leads us to repentance and faith in Christ, whose name alone delivers us from every evil.

Theme: The Lord heals us by forgiveness.

In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer for the twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

O Almighty and most merciful God: of Your bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech You, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things which You desire, through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Luther's Morning/Evening Prayer

Morning: I thank You, my heavenly Father, though Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

Evening: I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.
