A LAMB GOES UNCOMPLAINING FORTH

4. From morn till eve, in all I do,
I'll praise you, Christ, my treasure.

To sacrifice myself for you
Shall be my aim and pleasure.
My stream of life shall ever be
A current flowing ceaselessly,
Your constant praise outpouring.
I'll treasure in my memory,
O Lord, all you have done for me,
Your gracious love adoring.

5. Of death I am no more afraid.
New life from you is flowing;
Your cross affords me cooling shade
When noonday's sun is glowing.
When by my grief I am oppressed,
On you my weary soul shall rest
Serenely as on pillows.
You are my Anchor when by woe
My bark is driven to and fro
On trouble's surging billows.

6. And when your glory I shall see
And taste your kingdom's pleasure,
Your blood my royal robe shall be,
My joy beyond all measure;
When I appear before your throne,
Your righteousness shall be my crown,
With these I need not hide me.
And there, in garments richly wrought
As your own bride, I shall be brought
To stand in joy beside You.

(Rise!)
